

Here is my entry for this contest.

It was a Thursday, January 15th 2009 when I decided to go after the Spirit of the Woods+Cache.

We were sent home from work because of a Blizzard warning.

When I got home I wondered %what am I going to do now?+

It was -10°F and with the wind-chill it was -35°F!

I made the ¾ mile trek into the woods and found the stages of this Cache.

Being FTF was an added bonus!

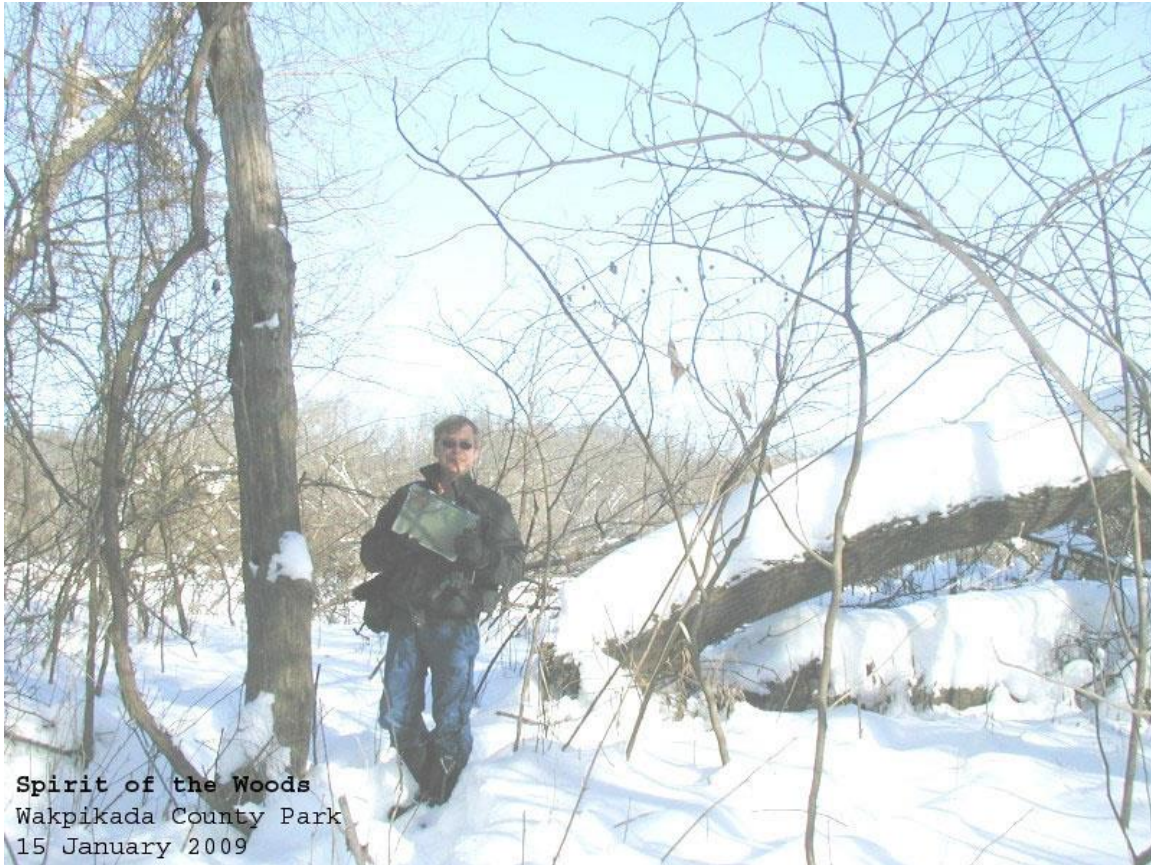

This is a Cache that I won't soon forget ☺

Thank You

Regards,
